OBJECTIVES

This module aims to provide participants with

- Basic knowledge in indentifying arrhythmias
- Basic knowledge in pacing protocols
- Basic knowledge in assisting electrophysiology studies

HIGHLIGHTS

The program is delivered in an interactive format in a small group setting. Hands on sessions on different machines and modalities focusing on practical application allows participants to gain first-hand experience and practical knowledge for use in the lab.

A separate attachment of 1 month in NHCS EP lab for familiarization of basic EP and 3D mapping machines setup, exposure to daily activities and cases (simple and complex) in a EP lab is also available. Please contact the secretariat for programme details and charges

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- Cardiac technicians
- Nurses
- Radiographers
